ONE STOP RESOURCE DISK A SNEAK AND PEEK AT WHAT MATTERS MOST COMING TO YOUR SHIP IN APRIL 2001

Have you ever wished that life was more organized or wished that there was one place to find everything you needed? If so, your wish is about to come true.

The Navy Exchange Service Command (NEXCOM), Ships Store Program, is proud to announce the release in April 2001, of the Sales and Service Division Resource Disk. Produced by the NEXCOM Fleet Assistance Team, Norfolk, with the fleet SH in mind, this disk is full of information any SH, at any rank, can use. Information contained on the April Disc is as follows:

- I. ASL/ACB. Updated to reflect the latest contract and SSAC listings. For ROM II ships the data will be automatically loaded into the ROM II data base.
- II. ROM II related utility software and ROM II software. For ROM II ships, the implementation software to enable ships to reload or implement their systems if a crash happens. Also included is the utility software to be used with the ROM II system.
- III. Publications.
  - NAVSUP Pub. 487/ROM II Ships - ROM II User's Guide
  - ROM II Self Assessment Check Off List
  - NEXCOM Pub. 81
  - NEXCOM Pub. 90-33
  - Julian Date Calendar & Planning Calendar
  - SH Training materials such as SH 1 & C, assignment books, etc.
  - Military Requirements training material
- IV. Ships Store Bulletins. Every Ships Store Bulletin issued from the last three years.
- V. Financial Operations. The financial results of each ships store/TYCOM/Fleet CINC reconciled by DFAS for the last 12 months showing sales, profit & loss, stock turn and inventory status.

The Sales and Service Division Resource Disk will be updated as information changes and released every two months to all ships.

LOOK FOR THIS NEW RESOURCE DISK IN YOUR APRIL MAIL.
